PROTECTION

from domestic violence

Here you will find help
if you are physically abused or threatened
in your marriage,
partnership or family

We have something - against violence

- If you are physically abused at home, you can call the police:

Telephone 110

- Police may order the person who is physically abusing you delete to leave your home. The delinquent must surrender the house key and is not allowed to return for ten days.
- Police will watch that the delinquent will observe this order.
- Whoever experiences violence in the family should seek advice as quickly as possible
  - for personal reinforcement
  - for further rights
  - for financial security
  - for better protection
